6th Annual UTEP IDRE Symposium
November 5th & 6th
Flash Presenters

The flash presentation session is an opportunity for individuals to share some of their best practices about effectively engaging in interdisciplinary activities from their own experiences.

- 9:15am – 10:00am on Tuesday, November 6th
- Tomas Rivera Conference Center, Union East
- Presenters have 5 minutes each to show no more than 5 slides
- Q&A following flash presentations

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

IDR as a survival mechanism
Dr. Kristin Gosselink
Associate Professor, Biological Sciences - Border Biomedical Research Center (BBRC)
Associate Dean, College of Science

Sustainable Community-Engaged Interdisciplinary Research: Partnership versus Project
Dr. Thenral Mangadu
Associate Professor, Public Health Sciences

Keeping your interdisciplinary team on task across institutions and countries
Dr. Gaspare M. Genna
Professor, Political Science
Director, North American Studies

Lessons Learned from Building a Productive Interprofessional Education Community of Practice
Dr. Celia Pechak
Associate Professor, Physical Therapy Program

Dr. Margie Padilla
Clinical Associate Professor, School of Pharmacy

Deep Knowledge Integration through Convergent Learning
Dr. Deana Pennington
Associate Professor, Geological Sciences

Interdisciplinary Research in the Social Sciences: Strengthening Research Methods to Enhance the Usefulness of Policy Recommendations
Dr. David Knight
Assistant Professor, Center for Education Research and Policy Studies, Department of Educational Leadership and Foundations